DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 2, line 3, there is no antecedent basis for "the housing."

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 2, as best able to be understood in view of the rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by DE 2926549.

DE 2926549 discloses a valve solenoid comprising:

- a housing [1] having first and second parts [figure 1];
- a coil [23];
- an iron circuit [13];
- a casing compound [4, 22] introduced into the first part of the housing embedding the iron circuit and coil; and

Art Unit: 2832

- connection elements [31, 31] arranged in the second housing part, wherein the second housing part is “configured to resist explosion pressure in case of an internal explosion and prevents transmission of the explosion to the environment.”

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 10-16-02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues:

[1] The connecting elements 31 of DE 2926549 are not arranged internally in the second housing part; and

[2] the casting compound taught by DE 2926549 is not configured to “resist explosion pressure” and provide “encapsulation” for the connecting elements.

Examiner disagrees:

Regarding [1]: DE 2926549 discloses connecting elements [36, 10, figure 1] arranged in a separate housing portion than the magnetic circuit;

Regarding [2]: DE 2926549 discloses the “live elements” contained, or encapsulated (as interpreted by applicant), in a housing first part. The casting material would inherently “resist explosion pressure.”

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2832

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
